AUCKLAND, Sept. 16.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The Tonga steamer Wainui has brought to this port the Captain and crew of the British ship Garston, Capt. Davies, from Syndey, N. S. W., for Capt Davies, from Syndey, N. S. W., for San Francisco, which foundered in midocean. The shipwrecked sailors were 23 days in an open boat without food or water. On the tweity-second day the men, driven to desperation by hunger and thirst, decided that one of their number must be sacrificed to save the lives of the others. They were casting jots to see who should be the victim when they sighted Wailis Island. The natives of the island assisted the exhausted men to land and treated them in the kindest manner. A mission boat took them to Tongs.

LONDON'S LABORERS. Strikers Return to Work-A New

Trouble Arises.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] Most of the strikers re-ICELY-FURNISHED

though a number of men had been out of work for weeks, and suffered great priva-tions, there was not a sligle case on the calendar arising from the strike. The peaceful behavior of the men, he declared, was a subject for national pride. Much ill-feeling exists between the dock laborers and the men who took the places of the atrikers, and the former refuse to work with them. Severel executions have garreis as serious. A meeting of the Joint Deeks Committee, Conciliation Committee and leaders of the strikers was called at the Mansion House. A deputation of ship-owners arrived at the Mansion House while the meeting was in progress. Finally it was agreed to endeavor to have the agreement kept intact by all the parties interested.

At a meeting at Popiar tonight Burns said the treaty with the workmen had been broken by subordinate officials of the dock companies. Unless the agreement with the men was kept, there would be another strike. The directors of the dock companies, however, had assured him that they would prevent any unfair preference being shown and ship-owners had advised the directors to pay the fares of "blacklegs" and send them back home.

THE CRUISER BALTIMORES REMARKABLE SPEED.

Maximum of Over Twenty Knots an Hour Attained—Secretary Tracy Congratulates Ex-Secretary Whitney.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—[By the Associated Press.] The general topic of interest at the Navy Department today was the remarkable performance of the new cruiser Baltimore on her trial last Saturday. Early in the day Commander Giass, who was a member of the trial board, called upon Secretary Tracy, and gave him some data relative to the trial, which pleased the Secretary to well that he tent the following telegram to an Secretary William, who pro-william: C. Whitney, lets Secretary of the Mansion Homse.

A deputation of ship-owners arrived at the Mansion House while the meeting was in progress. Finally it was agreed to endeavor to have the agreement kept intact by all the parties interested.

At a meeting at Popiar conight Burns said the treaty with the workmen had been broken by subordinate officials of the dock companies. Unless the agreement with the men was kept, there would be another strike. The directors of the dock companies, however, had assured him that they would prevent any unfair preference being shown and ship-owners had advised the directors to pay the fares of "blacklegs" and send them back home.

NOTES FROM ABROAD.

An Antwerp Man Who Is a Dynamite Jonah.

PARIS, Sept. 16.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] An explosion occurred today in a foundry on Rue Popincourt, belonging to Corvilain, the Antwerp manufacturer at whose factory in that city the recent disastrous explosion took place. The employés were engaged in melting builets extracted from a quantity of cartridges. Several contents and quantity of cartridges. Several contents and contents and during the four hours was 117.4 four hour, or after the boilers and engines had been for two hours during the four hours was 117.4 the verage revolutions of the screen disastrous explosion took place. The employés were engaged in melting builets extracted from a quantity of cartridges. Several contents and contents are appeared to the first occurred today from a quantity of cartridges. Several contents are appeared to the commander of the contents of the per minute, while the maximum for one hour ran up to 119.7. The average horsepower maintained during the four hours was probably as much, if not more, than 10,000, but the exact figures cannot be obtained until the computations are finished. This is 1000 above the contract requirement of 9000, and will entitle the builders to a premium of $10,000.

After the trial the vessel was put through evolutions to determine her maneuvering powers. With both engines running ahead she made a complete circle of 750 yards diameter in about seven minutes, while with the port engine going shead and the starboard engine backing she turned in a circle of 239 yards diameter in about seven minutes, while with the port engine going shead and the starboard engine backing she turned in a circle of 239 yards diameter in about 7.18 minutes. With full speed ahead she stopped in eight minutes and with both engines backing the ship came to a standstill in two and a quarter minutes.

The length of the vessel was loaded down with pig-iron to a point even in excess of her draught when fitted with guns and stores and amply demonstated her strength. He see aworthiness was particularly excellent and under full speed, or at 20 knots, the vibrations being about the forecastle and pilot house, but not nottleeable on the lower decks. She was so steady in seaway as to cause the officers to compare her to the monitor type, and this insures a steady gun platform, one of the prime requisites of a man-of-war. Two men were able to steer the ship at any time with the greatest readiness. Another noteworthy fact was the comfortable condition of the fire and engine-rooms. A duplicate crew was provided with the expectation of relieving the firenen in two-hour turns, but after the first two hours of the run the first watch refused to quit work, and insisted on running the ship through the entire four hours' trial.

ARID LANDS.

The Irrigation Committee Gives Hearing at Denver.

DENVER (Colo.), Sept. 16 .- [By the Associated Press.j The Senate Committee now investigating the question of reclaim-ing arid lands in the West by means of establishing reservoirs for irrigation pur-poses held a meeting today at the Chamber of Commerce. A number of prominent people were present, who thoroughly understand this question, and the benefits to be derived from irrigation. Among these were Senator Teller and Gov. Cooper. The were Senator Teller and Gov. Cooper. The testimony taken from those was to the effect that the entire eastern portion of the State could be tricated by the reservoir system, and hundreds of thousands of acres of land, now worthless, converted into the best agricultural land on the continent; that the storage system was undoubtedly the most practical, and if one-half the water which went to waste every year was stored there would be more than sufficient to reclaim every acre of land. The committee leaves for Cheyenne tomorrow.

motice of appeal to the United States Supreme Court was given by counsel representing the State of California, and Neagie was released on his own recognizance, his bonds being fixed at $5000.

The decision is very long, and was delivered by Judge Sawyer. It gives a review of the circumstances of the past year, including the threats of Terry and his wife, which culminated in the recent tragedy at Lathrop. In commenting on the subject of jurisdiction, Judge Sawyer says: "There is not a conflict between the authority of the State and the United States. The State in such cases is subordinate and the National Government paramount."

He continued: "There can be no doubt that the jurisdiction of the United States is not affected by reason of the location where the homicide occurred. The main questions which the Court considers are: Pirst, was the homicide now in question committed by petitioner while aching in the discharge of a duty imposed upon him by the Constitution and laws of the United States' and second, was the homicide necessary or was it reasonably apparent to the mind of petitioner at the time and under the circumstances then existing, that the killing was necessary in order to a full and complete discharge of such duty?"

The Court deciares that a marshal is a peace officer so far as keeping the peace in any matter wherein the sovereignty of the United States is concerned, and he has all the powers of a sheriff as to such matters. The Constitution provides for a Supreme Court, and gives to the President the power and duty of seeing that the laws are faithfully executed.

Mr. McIntosh of the Committee on Buildings and Sites reported, recommending that the bid of Camp & Carillo for the Temple-street retaining wall be accepted, and that steps be taken for the construction of a retaining wall for the Cuestnut-street school.

The recommendations of the committee were adopted, Mr. Whaling protesting as usual, on the ground that the board could not spare the money for this purpose.

Mr. Ellis of the Committee on Teachers reported the resignation of Miss Marion F. Cooser, which was ac-

Miss Lucy Grant was granted leave of absence until January 1st, and Miss Blanche F. Yale for one month. Ross Hanna and Miss Alice J. Cushing were elected teachers.

Classification reported the following changes: Miss Marie H. Perry to fourth and flith grade, Tenth-street School; Miss Mabel E. Dunn to third and fourth grade, Tenth-street School; Miss Mabel E. Dunn to third and fourth grade, Tenth-street School; Miss Mabel Borick to fifth grade, Spring street; Miss Maggie A. Desmond to third grade, Pine street; Miss Alice J. Brigham, teacher High School; Ross Hanna, eighth School; Ross Hanna, eighth, Sand street. The report was

Mr. Whaling gave notice that he wished his resolution in regard to re-questing the resignation of Mr. Cox as questing the resignation of Mr. Cox as secretary to go over until the next meeting, and there being no objection, this was allowed.

A number of bids for furnishing school desks and furniture were read and referred to the Committee on Supplies. All the bids were accompanied by certified checks for $500. One bid for coal from the New Mexico Coal Company was also received, which was also referred to the Supply Committee.

Mr. Whaling moved that his personal organ, the Evening Express betaken by the board and kept on file, but his motion failed for want of a second.

Mr. McIntosh offered the following

Mr. McIntosh offered the following resolutions:
Resolved, that the Superintendent be instructed to furnish the Suiding Committee, at the earliest day possible, with a statement of the number of schoolrooms necessary to be rented in the different school districts to afford all of the school children a full day's schooling until such time as the school buildings are completed.
Resolved, that the chief janitor be instructed to furnish the Building Committee, at the earliest day possible, with a statement of the number of seats available over and above the seats now in use in the present schoolrooms and school buildings.
Mr. Whaling objected, as usual, but as soon as he sat down the resolutions passed with only one dissenting vote, that of the Democratic member.
A recess of 10 minutes was then taken to enable the Supply Committee to examine a lot of sample desks, and, when this was concluded, the board was again called to order, when, on motion of Mr. Ellis, the Building Committee or the board was instructed to coöperate with the Building Committee of the Council in the purchase of sites, etc., and it was suggested that the time for receiving bids be av-

the bid of the Bascrott Company of San Francisco be accepted, and the Clerk be instructed to return the checks of all bidders except that of the Bascroft Company. The committee favored one style of desk, and Mr. Whaling offered a minority report favoring the automatic desk manufactured by the same company.

Mr. Whaling made his usual longwinded harangne, when he was called to order under the three-minute rule. There was a general talk, in which the matter of the price of the desk was discussed, and it was shown that the price was somewhat higher than last year. Mr. Ellis then withdrew his motion for the adoption of the majority report, and Mr. Bancroft was called on to explain the cause of discrepancy, which he tried to do, saying that the desk was a much better article than he had furnished last year.

Mr. McIntosh then moved that final action be deferred for one week, in order to give the committee more time, and, after some general debate, the motion prevailed, and a motion was made to adjourn, which was withdream to enable Maj. Burke to address the board on the matter of insurance, he having hadsome insurance policies that he had renewed, as was customary, and that they had been returned to him, after he had made out the bill for them.

Mr. Cox said that the insurance policies had been issued without being ordered, and that was all there was in it. Maj. Burke spoke at some further length, when remarks were made by Messrs. Cox, Gosper, Ellis, Gosper and Cox for investigation, and the board then adjourned to Wednesday week, the 25th inst., at 8 o'clock.

Rather a peculiar case came unde the observation of the police yesterday morning. Mrs. S. E. She told a long story about one of her patients named Mrs. J. R. Hesler of Chicago, who is being treated by Dr. Wilcox. It seems that Mrs. Hesler is quite poor, and as Dr. Wilcox thought she ought to have some security for her fee, Mrs. Hester handed her a diamond ring valued at about $25. Mrs. Hester told the Dec-tor to see what it could be pawned for, sistant told Dr. Wilcox that they could do nothing unless her patient was suffering from some contagious disease. The medical lady did not know what to do, so she went back to her office in the Wilson block and shed a few tears. She was found in her office later in the afternoon by a Times reporter and asked for an explanation. "It is one of the 'worst cases I ever had," she said. "I took charge of Mrs. Hesler at Santa Monica after several doctors had given her up. She was covered with ulcers and offensive boils, and when I first went to her room I had to hold my handkerchief to my nose, but in a few days I had them so cleansed that I could go into the room quite comfortably. In a few weeks I had the poor lady in a condition to be removed to Los Angeles, although the doctors who attended her before I was called in had telegraphed to her husband in Chicago to come out at once if he wished to see his wife alive. I spent night and day with her, until her husband, who is foreman of the Kimball Piano Works, in Chicago, arrived. We then moved her up to this city and placed her in Mrs. Archer's house. Mr. Hesler promised to pay a portion of my bill before he went home. but he gave hasband left. I have spent over $20 out of my ewa pocket for predicing for the poor would. When I get a poor would be ring from Mrs. Hester, I intended to raise some money on it for her, but, when I found that I could get only $6 on it, she told me to keep the ring, and I have done so. When Mrs. Archer locked the door on me'and refused to allow me to see my patient, I thought I was being ill-treated and I complained to the police. I have done over $1000 worth of work for the sick woman for charity's sake. I am confident that I will never get a cent from her husband, for what little money he has sent her has been taken by Mrs. Archer, and I am confident that they will never let me get a cent. Both these offers contemplate the piping of the sewage by posed to ntilize it. Probably we may yet be able to find some landowner ho will agree to take the sewage at the city limits, and pipe it thence selves. If the sewage is a good thing to have, it is worth paying a

A TEMPEST IN A TEAPOT.

The sudden and ferrent solicitude discovered by the Trombone per-former for the "battle-scarred veterans" and the "glorious old flag" is calculated to provoke a feeling of acquainted with the true character of e man who blows on that wind instrument, the Trombone.

A reckless sheet, grown desperate in the attempt to defer its inevitable collapse, sent a person of shady reputa-tion to the Soldiers' Home, to simulate a disabled veteran and pick up, enlarge and distort such disc gossip as may always be found among several hundred elderly invalids, thrown together, day after day, mainly without employment. Several of the men whose complaints were quoted have denied the words and sentiments which were put in their mouths, while all admit, when interrogated, that the Trombone account was grossly exag-

Simmered down, the long and diabolical series of outrages is brought to the two definite questions of table etiquette and tough beef. There are, it seems, several grades at the table and the meat supplied is frequently stringy. These and an occasional weakness in the coffee are the only tangible facts that can be grasped in this ocean of asserted outrages. It is, in fact, a very ordinary instance of boarding-house discontent, such as is bound to occur wherever a lot of peo-ple have nothing to do all day but to criticise the breakfast and forecast the dinner.

A great thing, forsooth! to build up a sensation on, and telegraph alarmist reports all over the country. It is mething like calling out the United States Army to suppress a drunken man at a street corner. There is probably not a Soldiers' Home or other public institution in the country where similar complaints are not made several found to be just, as these undoubtedly will be. Nobody, however, everthought before of prophesying a terrible revolu-tion on that account, or of appealing to an outraged nation for its sympathy and tears. It was left for the champion fake paper of Southern California to do that.

The gentlemen composing the com mittee of the Grand Army, which un-wittingly played into the hands of the speculation monger, by investigating so hastily and reporting still more so, have probably, by this time, arrived at that stage of sober second thought which will lead them to see that overprecipitateness has landed them closely on the verge of the ridiculous. There was of course no "conspiracy" on their part—nothing but good faith and some lack of deliberation. The conspiracy was and is on the part of the disreputable fakir of the Trombone and two or three lickspittle adherents.

It is unnecessary to say that no American, whose opinion is entitled to respect, desires to see the old soldiers treated otherwise than handsomely: out it is not necessary to evoke the Federal authority or to cry bloody murder throughout the length and breadth of the land, because of a tem-porary toughness in the beef and weakss in the coffee supplied to the veter-

Since the above was written a discovery has been made which more fully their anything else exposes the motives that prompted this preposterous raid upon a beneficent national institution located in our midst. Ten or fifteen of the cit members of the Produce Exchange met at the Board of Trade rooms resterday afternoon to take steps toward reorganizing that institution, and reviving the daily call, which was suspended some three years ago, when the real-estate boom began. The exchange is an incorporated body, and has all the necessary fixtures for the transaction of business, but was smply allowed to go to sleep, the Board or Directors still keeping up their organization, so that all that was necessary was to call the members together and announce a day when the call would be revived.

The meeting had been called for 3:30 o'clock, but it was almost 4 when President Matthews took the chair and called the meeting to order, T. H. Ward acting as secretary.

President Matthews briefly reviewed the early history of the exchange, told how it had been organized, the benefits that accrued to the members, how it had been allowed to die out, and the necessity for reviring it. He said that when the daily calls were discontinued there were 44 members on the roll, but only about 10 who took any interest in the board and afterded the calls regularly. There are now three times that number who would be directly benefited by the exchange, and for the benefit of the city the exchange should at once be revived and put on its feet.

The whole town was soon alarmed, and soon persons, with all sorts of weapons, were soon in hot pursuit. The Nicelys, having gained the woods, disappeared from view in the dease foliage. Soon, however, a shout went up that Dave had been discovered up a tree. This proved true, and the scoundrel was speedily captured.

An hour later Joe was captured, and the procession area.

An hour later Joe was captured, and the procession, now numbering about 8000 excited people, headed for two. Ropes were procured, and stremuous efforts made to liven the crimmals, but through the active efforts of some determined people, the attempts were frustrated and the Nicely boys were again safely landed in Jail.

The Deputy Sheriff, a brave and estimable citizen, lies at the point of death from wounds inflicted by the murderers. An excited and inturiated mob surrounds the jail, and it is liable to be broken into and the criminals hanged before morning. A careful search of cells and prisoners was made directly after the recapture of the Nicelys, and unearthed three more revolvers in the hands of prisoners.

The delegates were welcomed by Gov. Foraker, Mayor Bruck, Grand Master McKinley and Grand Patriarch Frost. The usual standing committees were appointed. The report of Grand Sire Underwood says: "The Independent Order of Old Fellows was never in a more prosperous condition than now. The incre se in membership during the past year was greater than the annual increase has been within the past 15 years. The following figures show the strength of the order: Number of white Old Fellows on the clobe January 1, 1889, Independent Order 652 787, Manchester Unity 688 491; total, 1,341,379."

The Grand Sire makes a number of recommendations, among them being that the constitution be changed so as to admit to the order, with the consent of guardians, young men 18 years old; that the Sovereign Grand Lodge reiterates its recognition of the military movement in the order, with the statement that the Patriarchs Militant are the only authorized military branen of Old Fellowship. The most important recommendation is that suggesting the raising of 1,000,000 or more to build a tempe for a permanent home for the highest body of the order. The plan contemplates a general parade demonstration of P triarchs Militant to be held annually, and that it be made the means of raising a fund for the above purpose, the entertries to be held in abeyance until sufficient money has been raised. The Governor only states in that region. The Governor has is used a proclamation to the propie of Harian county, calling attention to those facts, and advising them that the troops are not sent to take away any part of their rights, but to aid in enforcing the laws made by their representatives, and because the civil officers, sworn to uphold the laws, not only refuse, but give assistance to the criminal class. Murders and assassinations are perpetrated with impunity, and the people have permitted themselves to be so terrified by the lawless acts of a few individuals as to have refused obedience to the civil authorities in their efforts to arrest criminals. After they secured control of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road the firm proceeded at once to make an over-issue of sock in the names of the clerks in Ives and Siapner's office. An over-issue of 1000 shares of a face value of $100,000 was made by witness on Ives's order and desilvered to Zimmerman. On the same day, previous to August II, 1887, witness, by Ives's order, took the stock ledger to Ives's house in Bro klyn and burned it in the furnace to concean the over-issue of stock. Witness, however, kept a record of all these transactions in a small book. Ives knew about this and sometimes made entries in it himself. This book was taken to Newark, N. J., and kept till March last.

The book was preduced in court and identified and a record of the fraudulent stock issue was read.

After recess, witness stated that 2300 shares were subsequently handed him by Ives for the purpose of canceling old stock, which he did. Twenty of these certificates were identified by Woodruff. These were not recorded, because there was less stock available for cancellation than would suf-

Nearing an End.

ALBUQUERQUE (N.M), Sept. 16. — By the Associated Press. In conversation with General Manager Robiuson, who has just arrived from the East, it is learned with reference to the strike that the Griev-ance Committee on behalf of the striking employés will reach this city tomorrow, and simpleyes will reach this city tomorrow, and it is generally thought that the conference will result in an end of the strike. No complaints have ever been entered by any member of either the Conductors' or Brakemen's Bro herhoods. This is no strike for higher wages or against reduced wages, but only a centention between two organizations, one of which dealms that the subordinate management of the read disciminated against it, and points to the two dismissals as sevidence of their claims. This being the case the strike will hardly be able to withst and the reasoning of General Manager Moultonson.

Thus is disposed of the report put in circulation that all railroad employes indorse the acts of the strikers. Equally groundiess is the assertion that Sain ax Fé employé, will go out on a strike if the dem ands of the Grievance Committee are not compiled with to morrow. it is generally thought that the confere

PASADENA, Sept. 16 .- [Correspondence of THE TIMES.] The weather today was somewhat warm and was perceptibly felt, especially by those who have been summering at the various seaside resorts. At 7 o'clock the little ball in the weather measure had reached 78°, and at noon the mercury roosted on the 101 per ch. It was indeed a hot day. The forest fires in the San Bernardino region, and a warm wave coming in from the south, had the effect of giving the lemonade stends a very perceptible rush of business. If the present warm wave spell keeps up there will be another exodus to the mountains and shore in short

Funeral of Capt. Mohen,—A Large Attendance—Notes. SANTA MONICA, Sept. 16.—[Corre-spondence of The Times.] One of the most impressive funerals that has ever occurred in Santa Monica took ever occurred in Santa Monica took place this morning, when the remains of Capt. J. J. Mohen were interred in the little Catholic Cemetery north of town. In addition to the host of friends and acquaintances of the deceased, the fact that he was a promi-friends and acquaintances of the deceased, the fact that he was a prominent G.A.R. man and Past Commandant of the Fort Fisher Post brought the veterans out in strong order. The funeral procession formed at the Catholic Church on Third street soon after 80'clock, and was a mammoth affair, the long line of carriages extending for many blocks. The ritual was performed by the Rev. Fr. Hawes, the Catholic pastor resident here.

Today being the anniversary flesta for the natives of the "Land of God and liberty" over the southern frontier, the Mexican element was out in full force and celebrated the occasion in befitting style. The chief scene of festivity was laid at Pascual Marquez's place, at the mouth of the Santa Monica Cafion, and here a big burbecue and plonic was given and enjoyed. It was a late hour before the revelry was over, as the festivities concluded with a social dance.

Today the Arcadia opened its doors on the new system which will remain in vogue until the winter-escapes from the East arrive. By it the rooms of the house are rented solus, as the dining-room is closed. Visitors will now take their meals at neighboring restaurants.

MORALES INTERVIEWED. Morales was seen by a TIMES re-porter in his cell at the jail last evening. The bandit is quite a disappoint ing. The bandit is quite a disappointment, so far as his personnal appearance is concerned, and is one of the last men in the world that would be picked out as a desperado. He is simply a typical Mexican, with nothing about him to attract any particular attention. He speaks very low, and has a smile that is not unpleasant. He says that a great deal has been published about him that is not true, but as he is sentenced for life, he had taken no pains to correct it.

He says that he has been very well treated since his capture, but did not like the idea of being ironed. In regard to his former partner, Bunch, he had but little to say, merely remarking that he brought the fight on himself, by trying to raise a disturbance with him at a dance, at Rincon, when he refused to fight, as the house was that of a friend of his. They afterward met on the road, and, while riding along together, Bunch attempted to draw his revolver, but he was too quick for him, and got the drop. He said that he did not want the man he shot at, only wanted the horse he rode, but when he reached for his watch he thought he was after a gun, and he shot at him. He denied that he abducted the girl, but said thatshe had accompanied him of her own free will, and had followed him wherever he west. He denied that he had ever killed anybody, and said that he took horses only when he needed them. He had been in Old Mexico, where he got s me gold from a friend, and then returned to United States territory. He says that he will tell the truth at the examination of Bunch in Santa Monica today, and will see that he does not put anything on him for which he is not responsible.

Fifty-six Large Pages. Equivalent to a Two Hundred Page Book.

The Annual Trade Number of THE TIMES, now ready, is the most complete and in teresting publication of that character ever published in Los Angeles.

NOTABLE PEATURES—It contains a business review of the year, embracing a gr. a) mass of valuable facts bearing on the city and county: a thorough exposition of ematural resources—mineral, vegetable, commerc at and climatic. a review of the rise of progress of the boom, with solid proofs that the country is now in better condition than it was during the beight of the real-estate scottement; a carefully compiled exposition of the varied induces ents which Southern Californ's offers to the health-seeker, the home-seeker and the tourist, besides a number of interesting and valuable special articles on pertinent subjects. It contains more solid information bout the country toan could be growded into the compass of a hundred long letters, and for a few sints and the expenditure of a few minuses time in writing the address you can send a friend more Li-branton than any cut could write it a month, even if you had all the facts at hand. For a dollar you can supply ten families in the frozen East with information that Lay lead them it join the army of pilgrims to Southern California, to their own and this country sadvatage. Thus, whether viewed from the standpoint of friendship or as f-interes in all be seen that no cetter use can be made of a dollar than by purchasing the rewift ten copic; of the great lunual Trade Number of THE TIMES. Not one-tents of the planars ells bestowed in any other way for the same amount on monay.

—The Marquis de CondorPhilip IV. of Spain—The Peo

When Lee entered Marysville in September, 1862, McC el an steadily tollowed him, reaching Frederick on September 12th, just as Lee was leaving it. Having forced his way through South Mountain, the Federal commander marched into the valley and Lee was brought to bay behind Antietam Creek. His position was then perilous. Stonewall Jackson was then at Harper's Ferry, and his return to the main army was awaited with anxie y. McCiellan waited, however, until some of these troops had come, until some of these troops had come, and even then he had a force of 80,000 to Lee's 40,000. McClellan's plan was for Hooker to attack the Contederate left, while Burnside was to storm the bridge and fall on Lee's right. At early dawn, Hooker's corps made a furions charge, driving Jackson's brigade to some woods where the reserve lay concealed behind rocky ledges. In the desperate struggle that ensued the opposing forces were nearly destroyed. When the fragments were drawn off, the windrows of blue and gray showed where the lines of battle had been mowed down by the reaper, Death. As reinforcements arrived on making its bloody passage with bruised and mangled corpses. It was not till 1 o'clock in the afternoon that Burnside crossed the bridge. Meacwhile, Lee had been able to concentrate all his forces to resist the attack on his left, and, fill coming up, the Confederates easily repulsed the assault. The next day neither commander was disposed to renew the struggle, and as anything less than a victory was, as far as the Confederates were concerned, a deleat, on the following night Lee retreated behind the Potomac. That battle, indecisive as it was, had upset all his plans for the invasion of Penusylvania. and even then he had a force of 80. Pennsylvania.

THE MT. CENIS TUNNEL. A tunnel through the Mt. Cenis Alps, seven and a half miles long, con-Alps, seven and a half miles long, connecting Savoy and Piedmont, was at first proposed by Medail, and, after being long dormant, was discussed and plans drawn up in 1843. The political upheaval of 1848, and the wars to which it lead in 1849, stopped the work for a time. The process of excavation was begun by King Victor Emmanuel August 31, 1857. The work was at first effected by ordinary piercing machinery; steam power was applied in 1860, and afterward compressed air. The boring was completed December 25, 1870, and the first experimental trip was made in 40 minutes on September 13, 1871. Four days later, on September 17th, the tunnel was solemnly inaugurated by the passage of a train of 22 cars in 20 minutes. Regular trains began running October 16th, the same year. The Mt. Cenis Tunnel cost $13 000,000.

gone forever. The indoi nt idle days, the languid da sof the hot-weather merchants have gone forever. In fact, the do-little and care-little days are a thing of the past. In this era ef society and diligence merchants must either gradua e in the new school of business or pack up, bag and baggage, and sail away to a new, undiscovered land, where the influences of the People's Store are n.t. felt. Wel do we remember what ridicule we met with when we unpacked our handful of goods and announc d that we came to establish a One Price Ca-h House—to build up an establishment where trading could be done with security and confidence—a place where even a child can read the prices marked on each article instead of the unanown, heroglyphics then in vogue with dealers generally.

We do not know but that the mocking laugh, the ridiculing sneers, the derisive taunts which stung our young and ambitious blood to the quick did more to build us np to inspire us to victory, than any other motive.

We worked with a will, we worked 20 hours out of the 24, and were up with the lark. We worked like beavers, and many of our adjutants, who stood by us and worked with using hot the break of day, are now owners of large business houses.

We well remember an active little fellow, who tried to crowd 36 hours into the day—honest, upright and the soul of integrity—who stood by and helped us to guide our then frail craft. He was aways ready and willing, and is today one of San Diego's most propertune and success Werefer to William Cline, Esq. of Cline & Mumford, San Diego we quoe the aboye to show that to neither luck nor channes, nor even the belief that it was chiefly by advertising, the present magnitude to busy mart now known as the People's Store.
